HOW TO MAKE AN ORDER WITH SERVICES FOR EDUCATION

At Services For Education, we aim to be as environmentally friendly as possible.

We are the first to admit that this is a work in progress, but we do have a plan – and a big part of that plan is to dramatically decrease the amount of printing we do as a company.

That's why, as you may have noticed, last year we condensed our prospectuses and it's also why we're moving our paper-based booking forms to digital. You can now read about or book most of our services via our website:

www.servicesforeducation.co.uk

This should make it so much easier for you to order exactly what you need, from one place.

Ordering training courses:

You can now book all of our training courses and networks via our website. You can book multiple tickets at a time and you can book them for different staff members. Just visit: www.servicesforeducation.co.uk/training-courses

Ordering bespoke and consultations:

Services For Education advisers are able to provide high quality, individualised 1:1 or small group consultancy, whole staff or targeted group training in your own setting. Before booking a bespoke service, you will have a discussion with the appropriate adviser. In this case, we ask you to send an enquiry via the following form:

www.servicesforeducation.co.uk/contact-school-support

Ordering music-specific services:

To replace the Music Order Form we sent last year, we have created an online form. Using this you can book WCIT, SEND WCIT, Classroom Curriculum Teachers, Instrumental / Vocal Teaching and other music services. You can access the new form here: www.servicesforeducation.co.uk/music-booking-form

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

Our School Improvement services will help school leaders gain the necessary skills and knowledge to run highly successful schools, extending beyond the core components relating to pupil outcomes.

Advisers are experienced ex-headteachers, who understand the difference high quality school improvement partner provision brings.

In-school bespoke support provides independent and impartial challenge to meet school needs, covering:

- School Improvement Partner Services, including performance management and mentoring of the headteacher
- Subject Support – including Maths, English, Music, PSHE, RSE, RE and subject reviews
- Aspect Support – such as Early Years, Curriculum development, Assessment
- Wider Services – including Data Support including IDSR / ASP
- School Improvement Planning and support in writing an evaluative SEF
- Governor training

“Services For Education worked closely with staff in supporting children with their writing to include opportunities for delivering grammar activities and clarifying the need to secure pupils’ knowledge and skills in each year group. She also informed staff regarding updates to the exemplification from STA so staff are better prepared for monitoring sessions. The training sessions after school allowed teachers to implement activities whilst impact was measured in pupils’ independent writing. This is a partnership the English team greatly values and that we hope will continue.”

Mrs S Fazil, Deputy Head, Somerville Primary School, Birmingham

SAFEGUARDING

At Services For Education we provide a wide range of services and professional development opportunities to enable all those who work with children and young people in both formal and informal education settings to meet their wider safeguarding requirements.

From Designated Safeguarding Leader training through to safer recruitment and whole staff awareness sessions, our team of experts are able to develop your knowledge and understanding of safeguarding and child protection, to ensure the children and young people that you work with are protected from harm.

We provide awareness training on all of the specific issues identified in Keeping Children Safe in Education, and can tailor our sessions to meet individual needs and specific circumstances, including those outside of education settings.

Our support is delivered through centre-based, in-house training sessions, online courses and bespoke consultations.

"The safeguarding course was really well received by everyone, and what was particularly memorable was the fact that the adviser had obviously done some preparatory reading on our organisation in advance. The result of this was that she was able to provide relevant context to some of the points, rather than simply dealing with the theory. I would strongly recommend Services For Education for this kind of session in the future."

STATUTORY ASSESSMENT MODERATION AND SUPPORT

Services For Education works on behalf of Birmingham Local Authority to deliver the statutory duties regarding primary assessment.

In addition to undertaking moderation and monitoring services, we are in a perfect position to provide support, guidance and training for primary schools to best prepare for the requirements of statutory assessment in EYFS, KS1 and KS2.

Our team of experts and STA Approved moderators can provide centre-based, in-school or cross MAT moderation to ensure all schools are secure in their teacher judgements and assessment procedures.

"Great! Really helpful materials provided, especially exemplification examples. Thank you!"

Laura Newman – Class Teacher - St Ambrose Barlow

EARLY YEARS FOUNDATION STAGE

At Services For Education we provide a wide range of professional development and support to enable schools and education providers to meet the requirements that are set out in the Statutory Framework for the Early Years Foundation Stage.

For those new to EYFS through to experienced leaders, we offer a wide range of courses to develop the skills of EYFS practitioners addressing topics such as meaningful observations, assessment and moderation, outdoor learning, transition into Year 1, paediatric first aid, safeguarding and many more.

We deliver bespoke consultancy, EYFS reviews and health checks, and then work with leadership teams to identify training and approaches to develop and enhance practice.

"It's been a great day, networking with other schools and talking about early writing and how it links with other areas. It is great to get ideas from other practitioners and see resources and documents."

Hannah Plaskett – Yardley Wood Primary School

NQT REGISTRATION AND SUPPORT

At Services For Education, we provide both NQT registration and professional development to ensure teachers new to the profession develop into outstanding practitioners.

Becoming newly qualified is a challenging and exciting time and we've found that NQTs and their mentors really benefit from the guidance, support and communication that we have to offer. In turn, schools will see a real boost in teaching they provide and greater levels of retention.

Our dedicated NQT team provide personalised and prompt customer service; they read and quality assure every assessment submitted within a prompt time frame and support is available via email and telephone, and via visits for both NQTs and leaders.

You will also benefit from the flexibility to register your NQTs for 1, 2 or 3 terms with registration fees adjusted accordingly, and rolling registration and regular updates of NQT data to the TRA throughout the year.

"School support for NQTs is at the end of a phone or email! Nothing is too much trouble for the team. Their advice is communicated well and they give very clear messages to NQT Mentors and NQTs. Visits to school are very professional and as well as celebrating success visits can also guide schools in how to support NQTs further or how NQTs need to gather more evidence. Mentor training covers specific need to know topics and mentors feel fully informed."

S.Portlock – NQT Mentor

CURRICULUM - INTENT, IMPLEMENTATION, IMPACT

---

Services For Education are able to work with you to review and develop your curriculum through the Intent, Implementation and Impact methodology and prepare for the requirements of inspection and the 'Deep Dive' approach.

Under the new Education Inspection Framework, there is a requirement that schools communicate their curriculum intent, and create and deliver a strategy for successful implementation, generating a cohesive curriculum that builds on prior learning, deepens knowledge and results in the very best outcomes for all pupils.

In order to support schools, we are delighted to share with you our curriculum pathway, which will provide you with the necessary knowledge to review, revise and evaluate your provision.

"I recently attended the Curriculum: Intent, Implementation, Impact course led by Linda Brown and Tricia Bunn. It was incredible! I came away from the course feeling inspired and with renewed confidence. Highly recommend the course for those interested in curriculum development :)"

PUPIL AND PARENT SUPPORT

Children's emotional health can be a significant barrier to learning, and resulting behaviours can have an impact across the school.

Whilst many schools have their own in-house teams, for some children it may be that a specialist worker can be more appropriate and reduce the need for more complex referrals.

Services For Education provides a team of highly qualified and experienced pupil mentors and family support workers who become part of the school community – a valuable additional resource supporting your most vulnerable and at risk pupils and families.

Our team work to develop the relationships children and their parents to determine the most appropriate support and intervention to tackle the heart of the problem and provide appropriate and effective strategies.

"The Family Support offered through Services For Education has been a great addition to our Pastoral Team. Charlie was quick to offer support and instantly build trust and develop relationships with some of our difficult to reach parents. Charlie has been so successful that word has quickly spread amounts our parents on the playground. As a result, we have had to double the hours of Family Support offered in order to accommodate the ever growing waiting list."

HEALTHY LIFESTYLES

Services For Education deliver a number of programmes, including Health For Life, aimed at impacting positively on the physical and emotional health and lifestyle decisions that pupils make.

Through a whole school approach we provide policy development, curriculum planning and resources, staff professional development, support to change school culture and environment and to develop partnerships with parents / carers and local communities.

This strategy enables schools to not only teach health education effectively but provide pupils with opportunities to experience the benefits of healthy choices and behaviours.

"We signed up for the Health for Life Project at the beginning of last year and the support and advice we have had from Birmingham Services for Education has been outstanding. Helen Grundy has been particularly supportive and the advice and guidance she has provided has made the process as painless as possible. Helen has been at the end of a phone or email from the initial planning stage down to the final review... answering all my silly questions. I can't recommend the project or service enough."

Lee Wright - AHT St Edmund's Catholic Primary School

WHOLE CLASS INSTRUMENTAL TEACHING (WCIT) – INCLUDING SPECIAL SCHOOLS

Instruments involved include: violin, cello, flute, clarinet, recorder, tin whistle, cornet, trumpet, tenor horn, baritone, trombone, guitar, ukulele, keyboard, djembe, samba, mini pans, tabla and dhol.

THE WCIT PROGRAMME

Our WCIT Programme is subsidised through Arts Council England (ACE) funding and therefore costs just £896 per year for one teacher, one hour per week, for 33 weeks.

It is delivered to pupils in every Year 4 class by a SFE music teacher working in close partnership with the class teacher for a session of about 45 minutes per class each week.

Each session will provide a variety of linked activities including singing and opportunities for composition and improvisation.

Each child will be loaned a free instrument which, after careful preparation and training, they will be able to take home for practice.

WWW.SERVICESFOREducation.CO.UK/OUR-OFFER/WHOLE-CLASS-INSTRUMENTAL-TEACHING

WCIT FOR SPECIAL SCHOOLS

We also offer WCIT in special schools. This is delivered by a trained workforce of specialist music teachers, all of whom have undertaken a PGCert – Sounds of Intent (University of Roehampton) for Music and Special Needs.

We firmly believe that musical education can have a hugely positive impact and have witnessed a clear increase in confidence, team work and focus in the pupils we work with.

WWW.SERVICESFOREducation.CO.UK/OUR-OFFER/SEND-MUSIC-SPECIALIST

“Our students do not easily collaborate so to work together, editing and improving to make music, has been a positive challenge and they are visibly learning and enjoying the experience. It’s the layering of their combined efforts which is lovely to witness.”

Debbie Poole – Class Teacher - Baskerville School

INSTRUMENTAL AND VOCAL TUITION IN SCHOOLS – INDIVIDUAL OR SMALL GROUPS

---

Instruments involved include: Voice, DJ, violin, viola, cello, double bass, oboe, flute, clarinet, saxophone, bassoon, recorder, tin whistle, cornet, trumpet, french horn, tenor horn, baritone, euphonium, trombone, bass trombone, tuba, classical guitar, electric guitar, bass guitar, ukulele, keyboard, piano, drum kit, tuned percussion, djembe, steel pans, tabla, dhol, sitar, harmonium

All teaching is related to the National Curriculum, is supported by written pupil profiles and follows “A Common Approach,” the nationally agreed curriculum.

These sessions are delivered by a trained workforce of specialist music teachers, all of whom undertake an enhanced DBS check and receive annual training in safeguarding, and the latest pedagogical techniques and trends.

“Thank you very much, you really made an impression on him last night, the singing lessons have really helped build his confidence. When he started he had just moved to a school where he knew no one and was having a tough time.

He absolutely loved his first lesson and I hadn’t seen him that happy in a long time. Last night was a similar response and he even said you were better than his last teacher, which I didn’t think was possible, as they got on so well.”

Richard Cook – Parent

SOUNDTOTS – EARLY YEARS MUSIC TEACHER

'Soundtots' is a musical intervention, for groups, aimed at helping children reach a progressive level of development during their time in the EYFS, supporting children's language development, memory, listening and attention skills.

Soundtots can be provided throughout the week to support the wider aims of school development plans by supporting children's language development, memory, listening and attention skills and raising children's learning outcomes across the seven areas of learning within the foundation stage.

SFE music teachers will foster and model the three 'characteristics of effective learning' so that children learn to explore, to be engaged and motivated to develop their thinking skills by making links in their learning through music.

"The children's emotional and wellbeing and levels of involvement have improved since the start of the project. Those especially who came in with low levels of wellbeing and involvement have grown and settle well into the environment. They are more resilient and not so shy now, as they are more willing to take part in independent activities."

Sameeah Bhatti – Early Years Lead – Westminster Primary

MUSIC WORKSHOPS

WOW! MUSIC WEEKS

---

Our WOW! Music Weeks will enable you to saturate your entire school with music for a week. A number of our music staff will work on a carousel basis across year groups, introducing them to various musical styles and genres.

This can be dovetailed with existing musical provision and experiences at your school, as well as lead to performance opportunities in and for the community.

WWW.SERVICESFOREducation.CO.UK/OUR-OFFER/WOW-MUSIC-WEEKS

“The children were enthralled by the whole experience and learned so much about the brass family and about enjoying a musical experience. My year 1 children loved it and were talking enthusiastically about the music and instruments. A big thank you and your team for coming to delight our children and staff too. It was perfect and gave all our children a delightful, positive experience of music. I look forward to hearing about what else we can get involved in.”

Maria Aldred – Deputy Head Teacher - Holy Family Catholic Primary School

MUSIC EXAMS AND ENSEMBLES

Each year during the summer term, the Services For Education Music Service organises examination sessions for the world-renowned ABRSM, Trinity, Rock School and London College of Music examination boards. We also offer graded world music practical exams in partnership with Pandit Ram Sahaj Sangit Vidyalaya (PRSSV).

This is a great opportunity for children to get acknowledgement and accreditation for their playing. Accompanists are provided and entries are processed by us. Our staff will advise when a pupil is ready to take an examination.

WWW.SERVICESFOREducation.CO.UK/MUSIC-EXAMS

At Services For Education, we believe that the ensemble experience is absolutely crucial to any high-quality musical education. That's why, every year we bring together over 2,000 young musicians from across Birmingham, to form over 70 ensembles, which are free to join and are specifically designed to cater for all genres and abilities.

We run two types of Ensembles in Birmingham; Central Ensembles which require an audition and Area Ensembles which do not. We do not charge for any of our ensembles because imposing a charge would create an immediate barrier for many families who would struggle to afford these costs.

"The further I progress in my music career, the more and more I get back to thinking that I just wouldn't be here if it wasn't for the opportunities that Services For Education Music Service gave to me. This email is such an enormous thank you to the Birmingham Music Service at Services For Education and advocating its staggering staff and overwhelming capacity to procure talent."

Jake Bagby – Ex-Ensembles Pupil

MUSIC RESOURCES

To ensure that pupils receive the best music education they possibly can, we offer a range of Music Resources to support our music tuition in schools.

These resources are in a variety of different formats, including video, PowerPoint presentations, assembly plans, lesson plans, music, interactive online tools and more.

Currently we offer:

- Charanga – online music resources to aid primary instrumental, vocal and general music classroom work
- Reel Music – a digital resource aimed at Music Hubs, Schools and Higher Education Institutes
- Singing Connections – a selection of collective worship resources promoting British values through singing

Our resources have been created over the 50 years we've worked in the music industry and are tried-and-tested across hundreds of schools in Birmingham.

“ReelMusic is an important and wide-ranging resource which is of benefit to all those working in music education. In these days when music in schools is under threat in the curriculum it is helpful to see such a variety of thinking and practice. Criticality in music education is vital, and this resource encourages thinking about deep learning practices and important concepts.”

Professor Martin Fautley - Birmingham City University
